

Honor Flight Columbus is dedicated to ensuring that Veterans have the opportunity to visit their memorials in Washington, D.C. that honor their service and sacrifices, at no cost to them. This presentation will outline the details of the Honor Flight experience, including the logistics of the trip, the profound impact it has on veterans, and the significance of this journey. Veterans who are 65 years of age or older and who served at least one day of active duty beyond basic training, or who served 20 years in the National Guard or Reserves, are eligible for Honor Flight participation.
