New Albany History Day

Saturday, Apr. 26 | 10 a.m.-3 p.m.
New Albany Branch | 200 Market St.

In partnership with the New Albany-Plain Township Historical Society, join us for a day of history programs and activities. Connect with local historians, share your own New Albany stories, go on a walking tour and more.

Walking Tour: Historic New Albany | 11 a.m. – 12 p.m.
NAPTHS President Dennis Keesee will lead a walking tour of historical sites in New Albany. The tour will meet at and return to the New Albany Branch. Limit 30 attendees.

Veterans Memorial | 12:30 – 1 p.m.
City of New Albany Director of Administrative Services Adrienne Joly will share the city's local inspiration and developing plans for the recently announced Veterans Memorial.

New Albany and the Vietnam War | 1 – 2 p.m.
Historians Tim Butsko and David Gerhardt will discuss the Butsko family's and New Albany's connections to the Vietnam War.

New Albany Quilt | 2 – 3 p.m.
Heritage Quilters Barb Leeman and Catherine Saveson and historian Doug Tracy will present the large-scale quilt depicting 19th century New Albany completed in 2004.

All Day:

New Albany History Scavenger Hunt
Search for historical landmarks of New Albany hidden throughout the library.

Community Connects Us Quilt
Decorate a quilt square representing your story as we celebrate the community that connects New Albany.

Artifact Display
The New Albany-Plain Township Historical Society will showcase artifacts and images from New Albany's history.

New Albany History videos
A series of short local history videos created by the City of New Albany's Communications Department will be on display.

Record an Oral History
Share your memories with future generations. We will preserve select interviews on My History, our digital collection.

Scan or Donate Historic Items
Our Local History & Genealogy team will be here to scan photos and documents to be added to our digital collection My History.
